Directed by Laura Bardier, ESTE ARTE is a fair that presents a tailored selection of leading local and international galleries, giving collectors the opportunity to experience quality on a comfortable scale. Set against the backdrop of the vibrant city of Punta Del Este, the quality of collectors and visitors that ESTE ARTE attract demonstrates how the fair represents an important moment in the international art world calendar when the South American art systems can meet, exchanges ideas and thrives.

The second edition of ESTE ARTE will be held in a new venue and location of La Barra, on the Southeast coast of Uruguay. ESTE ARTE 2016 will present talks programmes and panel discussions during the fair. The ESTE CHARLA talks programme considers public and private collecting, art education methods and art funding strategies. This programme will include a talk on The fiction of architecture or the architecture of fiction with Argentinean artist Leandro Erlich and Paraguayan architect Gloria Cabral. The ESTE TERTULIA programme will include a series of discussions with artists and presentations of their work, such as Brazilian artist Cao Guimarães. ESTE SONIDO will incorporate a programme of public sound art performances including Suite para piano y pulso velado by Luciano Supervielle. ESTE GUIA, a series of public guided tours, will also return for the 2016 fair. ESTE ARTE will also present their ESTE BOLETIN, a published journal which will include profiles of the exhibitors, introductory essays and critical texts focused around the artwork exhibited at the 2016 fair.

The 2016 fair will be supported by the committee of the ESTE AMIGOS, an essential group of local collectors and friends of the fair and local institutions including the Ministry of Culture, Ministry of Tourism and Ministry of External Relations in Uruguay.

Laura Bardier, Director ESTE ARTE said: “ESTE ARTE is an art fair that provides a unique experience for visitors, set against the backdrop of the vibrant city of Punta Del Este, one of the premiere travel destinations for the world’s elite. After the success of the first fair in 2015, I am delighted to welcome back a range of leading galleries and to announce the arrival of some new galleries who will exhibit for the first time at ESTE ARTE 2016 as well as this year’s Cultural Agenda. I founded the fair last year to bring together a tailored selection of the best Uruguayan and international galleries during one of the key moments of the Punta Del Este social calendar, inviting visitors to view art in a luxurious setting. With its innovative format, I hope that ESTE ARTE 2016 may challenge the way people think about art fairs.”
