BIO

Liliana Velez Jaramillo is a Bogotá Colombia-based artist and writer from Colombia. She carries a BFA with an Emphasis in Media and Performance, from Los Andes University in Bogotá. Her art-work explores what happens when the line between inside/outside and public/private, is blurred. Her primary tool for doing this is the body. She grew up in a Catholic context in Colombia, surrounded by danger and violence; feelings, thoughts, fears and mistakes were expected to be secret. The body had to remain concealed. Her work feeds on a repressed feeling of exhibitionism that comes from a long time of trying to hide her emotions and her body.

Her videos are distributed by Vtape, which is based in Toronto, Canada. And have been screened in venues such as the REELOUT 12 Festival in Kingston, Canada, at the HEMISPHERIC INSTITUTE in New York, the 2nd Cali International Film Festival in Colombia, 56th International Short Film Festival Oberhausen in Germany, Loop'10 Festival in Spain, AluCine Media Festival in Canada, I Heart Video Art Contemporary Art Forum Kitchner (CAFKA) + Area, Canada, Reduced Polished at Monkey Town in Brooklyn, NY, Maximum Bunkers at the Envoy Gallery in New York, 48th Cartagena International Film Festival in Colombia and Asahi Art Festival in Japan. Her stories have been published by HIVE Comics Anthology, Revista Matera, El Bodegon Gallery for ----*con textos *---- at the Luis Angel Arango Public Library, Bogotá, Colombia, by Encuentro Medellin 2007 (MDE07), Medellín, Colombia and by JOYSTICK in Spain, <http://www.jstk.org/airport/index.html#>
