Press Release

Join us, for an unprecedented experience bringing you in the rooms of Hotel Windsor and Grand Hotel Le Florence, as well as in 30 different venues of the city.

OVNi is a unique festival format which gather 70 institutions, art centers, galleries and private collection, through two courses combining Nice hotel rooms and art spaces, design, architecture, music and literature places. An unusual federation of people who like art to offer the public the best of video art in an intimate or playful way. For six days, you are invited to walk across the city of Nice and enjoy every day events, vernissages, late hours exhibitions, concerts. Find the full program on our website www.ovni-festival.fr

Pascal Neveux, Director of Frac PACA, is the sponsor of this second edition.

The Windsor Hotel reinvents the art of hospitality in the invitation made to prestigious museums from Seoul to Hobart, to program a specific installation for our video-festival. This year there is a special focus on Argentina, the country guest of honor, amongst many international institutions Moca, Mona, Arario Museum, Muntref, Mudam ...). Well known french institutions or specialized associations, whether regional or national, are also present (CNAP, Maison Européenne de la photographie, la maison rouge, Fondation Ricard, Espace de l'art concret, MNM...) as well as international festivals (Loop, Bienalsur, In and Out) and art schools (Pavillon Bosio, Le Fresnoy, Central Saint Martins, Villa Arson). Each structure presents works from one or several artists of their choice. Fifty prominent artists are represented, amongst which are Steven Cohen, Dan Graham, Wim Wenders, Yuri Ancarani, Sylvie Blocher, Kapwani Kiwanga, Hans Op de Beeck...

For this second edition, the proactive contemporary art network from Marseille, Marseille Expo is hosted in Nice by The Grand Hotel Le Florence. Nine structures worked to curate a show related to the subject of environment, as an echo to owners commitment. The Hotel Rivoli welcomes the Burrhus Hotel, an innovative hotel creator of the annual manifestation "Supervues" in Vaison La Romaine).

Originally, OVNi offers the possibility to discover a still relatively unknown medium in the privacy of a hotel room. This is the "nest" of OVNi.

Two Parcours are organized in parallel in the city, one of them namely "chambre en ville" in which venues will play with the concept of the "room" as a broadcasting space, or as a trigger for a production; for example the Mamac will show a piece from Chantal Akerman, the Palais Lascaris will exhibit Corina RÜEGG, LOFT will work with Pierrick Sorin and la Conciergerie with Kristof Everart. The other parcours called "Satellites" gave "carte blanche" to several venues which decided to freely "circulate" around the OVNi original proposal, with a display of installations and projections in the city with Andy Guérif, Fontcuberta, Ayoung Kim, and many others....

OVNi's Grand Opening will take place at Smarin's workshop, in presence of designer Stephanie Marin and Yto Barrada to present her video works in their Geologic Salon. For the closing evening, visitors will attend Evangelia Kraniotti's special screening, Exotica Erotica at Saint Pierre d'Arène's church.

Last but not least, MOVIMENTA is a forum of experts that will offer 2 days of lectures and meetings entitled Plein_Ecran on the first and second of december in synergy with OVNi festival.

OVNi is a collaborative project, a set of invitation in which each participant "apporte sa pierre a l'edifice" (French saying that literally translates as "brings its stone to the building"). The playful format of our festival encourages visitors to discover or to revisit both acclaimed or unusual cultural venues, open specially for the event, addressing to the general and the initiated public as well.
